We offer hope

The American Red Cross prevents and alleviates human suffering in the face of emergencies by mobilizing the power of volunteers and the generosity of donors.

How we help

Disaster Response We help people affected by disasters ranging from home fires to floods by providing food, shelter, essential relief supplies and comfort and hope.

Preparedness Education We teach families, people in classrooms, organizations and corporations how to Be Red Cross Ready for disasters and emergencies by taking simple steps to get prepared.

Service to the Armed Forces We connect families and veterans with resources in response to emergencies, train military families in coping and resiliency skills, and supply recreational and therapeutic support in military and VA health care facilities.

Health and Safety Training We teach vital lifesaving skills in first aid/CPR/AED, babysitting, water safety and pet first aid.

International Humanitarian Services We coordinate fundraising for measles vaccines, educate youth about the Geneva Conventions and provide international tracing and messaging for loved ones separated by armed conflict.

Get involved

Volunteer Red Cross volunteers touch lives every day. They are as diverse as the people receiving Red Cross services. It takes all kinds of people to make this organization work—different ages, different backgrounds and different skills. Learn more at redcross.org/volunteer.

Donate Your financial support ensures the Red Cross can continue to provide assistance down the street, across the country and around the world. It also aligns you with one of the most trustworthy, socially responsible helpful and friendly humanitarian organizations in the U.S. To learn more about how you can contribute, call us at (303) 722-7474.
